RECOGNITIONS

Dixie Thompson, professor and head of the Exercise, Sport and Leisure Studies department, recently graduated from the 2008 class of the Higher Education Resource Services (HERS) Bryn Mawr Summer Institute, held at Bryn Mawr College. The Summer Institute is a professional development program dedicated to the advancement of women leaders in higher education administration. Thompson's participation was sponsored by the Chancellor's Office. She was selected to represent UT Knoxville through a process facilitated by UT Commission for Women.

Jennifer Beals, associate professor in the UT Library, and former faculty member Ron Gilmour recently collaborated on an article chosen for the Emerald Literati Network High Commended Paper Award. The article, "Assessing Collections Using Brief Test and WorldCat Collection Analysis," originally appeared in the journal Collection Building.

The work of three UT researchers was recently featured at the inaugural Tennessee Innovation Conference, sponsored by the Tennessee Technology Development Corporation (TTDC) in Nashville. Dayakar Penumadu, professor and interim head of the Civil & Environmental Engineering department; Jimmy Mays, professor and distinguished scientist in the Chemistry department; and Bill Hamel, professor and head of the Mechanical, Aerospace and Biomedical Engineering department, each demonstrated research projects with great potential for commercialization. The conference highlighted the value of state support of technology-based economic development initiatives.

A textbook co-authored by John Wachowicz, professor of finance, has been reissued in its thirteenth edition, recognized nationally and internationally and translated into more than ten foreign languages. The book, Fundamentals of Financial Management, is used in finance classes around the world and is recommended reading by the Association of Chartered Certified Accountants and the national Certified Management Accountant examination.

Laura Widman, doctoral student in psychology, is the recipient of a $1,000 research scholarship from the American Psychological Foundation. Widman and Ellen Harvey Williams, graduate student in psychology, are also recipients of American Psychological Association Dissertation Research Awards ($1,000 each).

WANTED: News & Nominations

The UT Office of Research is seeking research news and opportunities, scholarly and professional recognition, and nominations for "Scholar of the Week."

Send items for either News & Opportunities (the green newsletter) or Awards & Recognition (the gold newsletter) to Craig Cook (ccook10@utk.edu), preferably by the Wednesday preceding the expected publication date.

To nominate a colleague for "Scholar of the Week," send a note to Dennis McCarthy (dmmccarthy@utk.edu).
