Graduate students in the humanities are now eligible to apply for a Summer GRA award. However, as the language of the application for the humanities award is slightly different than the above we ask you to please click here for additional information.

Graduate Students in the humanities who receive a Summer Graduate Research Assistantship will be eligible to have the use of an office in the Humanities Center for the period of their award. The Humanities Center will provide the necessary services to help facilitate their research, including offering a tutorial on turning their research and dissertation into a publishable manuscript.
